INCOME TAX A FAILURE.

RETURNS INDICATE THAT ABOUT $10,000,000 WILL BE COLLECTED.

THE SUPREME COURT DECISION BLAMED FOR THE FIASCO OF POPULISTIC LEGISLA-TION-REVENUE OF ALL KINDS

ON THE WANE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, April 16.—The bluest lot of people in Washington to-day were those who had been predicting heavy receipts for the Treasury during the remainder of the fiscal year. The reports from collectors of internal revenue were very discouraging to those who had expected heavy returns from the income tax. While the returns themselves have not, of course, been sent in, enough was received from the collectors throughout the country during the day to make it apparent that the income tax was going to be a great disappointment. "If we get one-third of what we had expected out of it," said a prominent official of the Treasury, "it will be all that I now expect. nizing screams, ran down two flights of stairs to That decision of the Supreme Court played smash That decision of the Supreme Court played smash with our prospects on income tax. I do not believe we shall get $10,000,000 out of it, and as a part of that will be paid in June and a part in July, we shall not feel it in any way."

It was a blue day all around at the Department. Charles Keytiz of No. 200 East One-hundred and seventh-st., and Charles Keytiz of No. 200 East One-hundred and seventh-st. that will be paid in June and a part in July, we

Not only were the reports from the income tax returns depressing, but the receipts were even more so. They amounted to only $458,397 for the day, including everything, making the deficiency for the month $9,199,875, and $51,768,489 since the new law went into effect. These figures, coupled with the bad news from the income tax, made it apparent that the fiscal year which is to end in seventy-five days is going to be a big disappointment for those who measured their hopes by Secretary Carlisle's estimates sent to Congress last December.

The Washington branch of the office of the collector of internal revenue for the Baltimore district kept open late last night for the accommoda-tion of belated citizens whose incomes are more than $1,000. None of the racing men in attendance at the St. Asaph meeting filed statements show-ing the amounts received through betting. Commissioner Miller late this afternoon issued an additional circular to internal revenue collect-ors, in which he says:

ors, in which he says:

In cases of incorrect income-tax returns now filed in your office, you will notify the persons who filed such returns that they must appear within a reasonable time, specifying the date and place for appearance, and correct or explain said return, and that on their failure to appear and make said corrections you will correct and increase the amount of such returns, sating the particular corrections which shall be made and the amounts by which said returns will be increased.

Where persons and corporations liable to make returns have neglected or refused to make returns, and where in your opinion faise or fraudulent returns have been filed, you will give notice to the delinquents, and to those who made such false or fraudulent returns, to appear and show cause why penalties shall not be assessed against them.

Chicago, April 16.-Judge Showalter, at the open ing of court this morning, entered an order vacating the restraining order against Siegel, Cooper & Co, making their income tax returns. The Judge had sent for Mr. Binswanger, who secured the order yesterday, and in open court he announced the vacation of the order pending a formal hearing. "I looked hurriedly at the bill," said the Court, "and did not understand that it was based upon a question of unconstitutionality. I regarded if as a question of unconstitutionality. I regarded if as a mere formal matter. The defendants were present in court and consented to the proceedings; being a motion which was not contested. I granted it. The order will now be vacated, and a hearing on the application set for two weeks from to-day."

The effect of the vacation will be to make Siegel, Cooper & Co. liable to the fine of $1,000 for failure to make a return, if the order is not granted at the hearing. Under the order granted yesterday, the firm would have escaped the payment of the fine, had Gerston Siegel's suit failed before the court on the final hearing. District-Attorney Black will contest the granting of the injunction prayed for at the hearing two weeks from to-day.

A LULL AT THE OFFICES HERE. COLLECTOR GROSSE RECEIVES AN IMPORTANT RULING-FIGHT WHICH THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY WILL MAKE.

ere was quiet, even duiness, in the offices of the collectors of Internal Revenue in this city yester-day, in marked contrast with the crowding and hustling which continued all day Monday. A few persons went to the offices to file income returns, thinking that their tardiness might be overlooked, but they were told that they were too late to escapthe 50 per cent penalty which the income tax law decrees must be imposed upon all persons who failed to get their returns in on or before the 15th of April. The letter-carriers took to the offices some returns were received as having been filed within the required time

The deputies and clerks in the offices were willing to have a respite yesterday, as they had been worked much harder than usual for a week and had been on duty until midnight on Monday night. The collectors sent telegrams to Washington in the afternoon, stating the number of returns of incomes which had been filed at their offices.

Collector John A. Sullivan said yesterday that he had received about 4,500 returns of incomes, a much returns were sent by corporations. It was possible Mr. Sullivan said, that some of the corporations whose principal offices are in this city have sent their returns to collectors in New-Jersey or in New-England States, under the misapprehension that the law required them to make returns to collectors in States in which the corporations were incorporated, and in such cases it probably will be held that the corporations have made the returns within the time required by law, although the returns will have to be transferred to the district in which the corporations have their main offices. It is believed that about 1,000 corporations in Mr. Suilivan's district have falled to make any returns of incomes and are therefore to be considered as delinquents. It will be a week or ten days before the work of checking off the lists of corporations can be begun and an on real estate and so it will fight the law. The Standard oil Company contends that, as oil is a direct product of the land, it comes in the same category as rent. The company will make its returns, but it will fight the law.

Although the officials in Collector Grosse's office, in the German Savings Bank Building, were busy yesterday, there was no crowd to attend to, as there was on Monday. Painters were at work in the offices, through which crowds had surged on Monday, and the place therefore had the asnect of being cleaned up after a hot engagement.
The mail received yesterday morning was heavy, comprising about 500 pieces. The office force was busy all day counting the whole number of returns made. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon over 13,000 forms had been counted, and there was a big pile remaining uncounted.

Collector Grosse yesterday received the following letter, giving an important and interesting ruling, from the Treasury Department at Washington:
"In reply to your letter of the 12th instant, relative to the deduction from income of the rental value of business premises owned and occupled by persons who carry on business, you are advised that such deduction is not allowable. Your ruling in this matter is, therefore, correct, and merits the approval of this office."

Collector Grosse said the forms returned at his office yesterday were 5,000 in number.

CENSUS OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS.

Yesterday General James R. O'Beirne, on behalf of the Catholic School Committee, formed recently to take a census of the number of children attending the parochial schools in this city, pre sented the report of the committee to the president of the Board of Education.

The report is signed by Monsignor John M. Farley, as chairman of the Catholic School Board and shows that there are 15,249 boys and 17,259 girls in attendance at the 101 parochial schools in this city. Appended to the report is the following statement from Monsignor Farley:

The schools contained in the list given above derive support exclusively from the people belonging to the parish churches. In many of them kindergarten methods are taught, together with the primary branches. Other departments in the work of education and manual training for Catholic children are to be found in the various charitable institutions. In the colleges, academies and select schools there are a large number of scholars not included in the figures here submitted.

The census was taken at the request of Mayor Strong, who is taking a deep interest in the school children of New-York City, with a view of pro

A GIRL'S GREAT AGONY.

FATALLY BURNED IN HER HOME.

THE FLESH LITERALLY ROASTED FROM HER BODY WHILE SHE RAN THROUGH THE HOUSE SHRIEKING FOR AID.

Lily Grassman, fifteen years old, living with her parents on the third floor of the tenementhouse, No. 111 East One-hundred-and-ninth-st., was fatally burned at her home yesterday morning. Lily had been left in charge of the house and her little five-year-old sister while her mother went out to do the family marketing. Her father, Simon Grassman, a framer, and her two older brothers were away at work. At 10 o'clock the quiet of the house was suddenly disturbed by loud shricks, and Lily rushed from her apartments with her clothing all ablaze. She ran upstairs to the apartments of Mrs. Schott, on the fourth floor of the house. Mrs. Schott, a nervous woman, some-what advanced in years, opened the door of her apartments, but, when she saw the biazing figure standing in the doorway, she shrieked in unison with the girl and fell backward in a faint. Seeing that she could get no ald there, the girl, with agothe second floor of the house, screaming with pain

Charles Kyritz, of No. 200 East One-hundred and Charles Kyritz, of No. 200 East One-hundred and-third-st., two blacksmiths, whose shop is five or six doors away from Grassman's house. The three men reached at the same time the room in which the girl had sunk down exhausted and extinguished the flames. It was found that she had been burned over nearly her whole body. Nothing could be got from her except a somewhat incoherent statement that her little sister had ignited a lot of paper at the kitchen range, and that her clothing had taken fire while she was endeavoring to extinguish the flames. The girl was taken to the Harlem Hospital, where she died at 6 o'clock last evening.

CARRIED A BURNING MATTRESS. NALLY STARTLED THE CHARLES-ST. POLICE AND

CAME NEAR BURNING TO DEATH. John W. Nally, a cleaner in John Flannery's saloon, narrowly escaped death in a fire which gutted a room in the rear of the salcon, at No. 239 West Tenth-st., at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Nally sleeps in the back room, and it is supposed that he went to sleep with his pipe in his mouth and that it set fire to the couch on which he was lying. As it was, Nally was seriously burned about he arms and legs. He can thank Mrs. Gustav Bornheim that he was not burned to death. The Bornheims occupy the second and third floors of the building, and at 3 o'clock Mrs. Bornheim awoke her husband and told him smoke was pouring into the room. Mr. Bornheim ran downstairs, and looking over the transom into the saloon he saw the back room ablaze. He smashed in the door and rushed in. Nally was awakened by the noise mad in breaking down the door, and Bornheim met Nail with a burning mattress in his arms.

Rornheim yelled to him to drop the mattress and then rushed around to the headquarters of Hook and Ladder No. 5, in Charles-st., and notified the cap-

Meantime Nally had lugged the burning mattress to the street, where he dropped it. His legs and to the street, where he dropped it. His legs and arms were blistered, and his face was blackened by the smoke and soot.

In this condition he rushed, half naked as he was, like a wild man to the Charles-st, police station, where he startled Sergeant Albertson by bursting through the doorway like a savage on the warpath. "I'm burned! I'm burned! Save me: Save me:" yelled Naily. The sergeant took one look at the miserable-looking object before him and then telephoned a hurry call for an ambulance to St. Vincent's Hospital. The ambulance came promptly, and he was taken to the hospital. He will probably get well. The back room of the saloen was gutted. The damage will amount to about 1300.

ALLEGED INCENDIARIES IN COURT. NO EVIDENCE OF THEIR CONNECTION WITH WEST SIDE FIRES-ONE DISCHARGED AND TWO SENT TO THE ISLAND - THE FIRE MARSHAL'S VIEWS.

Central Office Detectives Titus, Vallely and Evan hoe are still at work investigating the recent mysno clew has been obtained that would lead to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for outbreaks. The detectives and the police of the West One-hundredth-st. station are making every effort to unravel the mystery surrounding the origin of the fires. The police are exercising unusual vigilance in the district where the fires occurred. The patrolmen have orders to give special attention to flathouses on their posts, and to arrest any suspicious characters found loitering the streets. The police still believe that the fires were started by a lunatic, and are working

Thomas Fitzpatrick, who was arrested on Sunday numerous supposed incendiary fires in that neigh-borhood last week, was arraigned before Justice Koch, at the Harlem Police Court, yesterday morning, by Policeman Meehan, of the West Onehundredth-st. station. The officer said that he had made a thorough investigation of the case, and had been unable to connect Fitzgerald with the fires. On the contrary, the officer said that he had found that the prisoner's account of himself was true; that he lived at No. 41 North Second-st. Williamsburg, and he was employed as a truckman by a Williamsburg firm, the members of which gave him a first-class character. Fitzpatrick said that he left home on Sunday morning to visit a friend named Eugene Collins, who lives somewhere in the neighborhood of Ninety-fifth-st, that he drank until he became intoxicated, and that his conduct in the apartment-house at Ninety-fifthst, and Central Park West was due to his drunk enness, as he had no recollection of what had occurred. Justice Koch discharged him, with a aution to be more careful in the future.

John Ryan and John Murphy, who were arrested on Sunday evening while trying doors in Ninety-fifth-st., between Columbus and Amsterdam aves., on Sunday afternoon, were also arraigned in court. Policeman Mullen, who arrested them, said that they belonged to a gang who infested Riverside Park to the great annoyance of the residents of the Park to the great annoyance of the residents of the neighborhood, but that he had been unable to connect them with the fires. Justice Koch committed them to the Island for two months each. Fire Marshal Mitchell was seen yesterday afternoon at Fire Hall. When asked as to what conclusion he had arrived at relative to the unprecedented outbreak of fires on ... e west side of Central Park last week. Mr. Mitchell said:

"With three exceptions, those fires were of purely accidental origin. The three in question were at No. 73 West Ninety-second-st., No. 85 West One-hundred-and-fourth-st., and No. 106 West One-hundred-and-fourth-st. Even here we have no direct evidence of incendiarism, but we learned of a strange man with no ostensible business having been seen loitering about the premises just before and during the progress of the fires. In these houses robberles were reported by some of the tenants after the fires, but those seen incidental to fires in flat and tenement-houses."

NO GENERAL ADVANCE IN INSURANCE

There has been no organized movement amor the insurance companies or fire underwriters to raise fire insurance rates on account of the many uptown fires, but several companies have raised their rates in the district where the fires have

WORK OF THE MARITIME ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Maritime Association of the Port of New-York was held yesterday. Edward S. Atwood, the president of the association, made an address, summarizing the work done by the association in the last year and outlining its present condition. The present assets of the association show an increase of $5.22 over those of last year, notwithstanding a loss of income from bills of benefit to commerce and navigation had been passed in Congress through the efforts of the asso-clation in the last year and several bad ones suc-cessfully combated.

The report of Superintendent Houghton, of the Maritime Exchange, showed that the exchange had been successful in its work and called attention to the many new facilities which are now afforded its members.

WORKING AT THE POLICE CENSUS

A dozen policemen, detailed for clerical duty, were at work in the library of the Health Department on the top floor of the Criminal Courts Building yesterday, tabulating the returns of the latest police census. They were working under the direction of Dr. R. S. Tracy, the Deputy Register of Vital Statistics, who will make a report on the census when all of the figures are added up. The work is not half done yet, and all of the returns are not yet in. There have been some published statements Board, has given strict orders to prevent any in-formation on the subject being disclosed to any per-son before it is sent to Mayor Strong.

A BIG FACTORY JUST BUILT IN NEWARK Nothing succeeds like success, and the truth of this old adage is amply proved by the success which has attended the opening of a factory for the proper making of that sterling remedy, Johann Hoff's Malt Extract. This factory is situated in Newark, opposite the West Newark station of the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is built of brick and brownstone, and has two cupolas, which add to the handsome appearance of the building. Inserted in the front of the big building is a marble slab. engraved simply: "Johann Hoff; original house in Berlin, Erected, Newark, New-Jersey, 1893." The factory, for such it must be called, is five stories high, and was completed in the year mentioned. The skill of expert architects and builders was employed, and to-day the big building stands, a significant symbol of the success of the giving remedy which is made within its walls. The great demand for the extract in this country prompted the erection of the factory, and, large as it is, the constantly growing demand for the well-known product may soon make necessary an enlarging of the present building. The maan enlarging of the present building. The machinery in the handsome structure is of the latest make, a perfect system of ventilation insures cleanliness, and skilled employes only are hired. Of course, the making of the extract is a secret, but its beneficial results to those who take it are no secret. For forty-five years it has been steadily growing in favor, and it has gained the approbation of even the most conservative physicians. It is really an almost indispensable remedy for those who are recovering from attacks of enfeebling fevers or those worn out with hard work and care.

DECENT LIGHTS IN ELEVATED CARS AT LAST. New-Yorkers who are obliged to ride on elevated trains frequently at night were pleased yesterday afternoon by news from Albany that the Assembly had passed a bill requiring the lighting of the elevated cars by electricity or gas. The demand for better light in the elevated cars has been voiced by nearly every newspaper in the city, and it is to be hoped that the Senate and Governor will aid in making the bill a law without much delay.
